APPROACH

We seek to provide investors with diversified exposure to U.S. small cap equities. The fund is actively managed and seeks to offer a balance of companies that have had sustainable earnings growth and that also trade at what we believe to be attractive valuations.

PROCESS

Team uses in-depth industry knowledge and proprietary evaluations tools to screen our investment universe. We focus on the characteristics that fundamental investors find rewarding: quality management teams and sustainable earnings. Market inefficiencies enable us to exploit the opportunities we find by developing differentiated views based on our independent research. The objective of our fundamental research is to develop a learned view on each company's earnings potential, competitive advantages, and capital discipline. Disciplined decision making leads to a high conviction final portfolio.
