BNP Paribas Investment Partners' update for journalists Issue #282 – July 20th, 2016

UK REAL ESTATE Signs of impending doom or opportunity?

The UK economy did well in recent years, but even before the Brexit vote, cracks had started to appear.

The experts of the Multi-Asset Solutions Team of BNP Paribas Investment Partners share their thought on how the recent events in the UK are likely to impact UK Real Estate.

In their view, this combination will trigger monetary easing in the form of rate cuts and possibly a restart of government bond purchases. Recession and prolonged uncertainty are likely to weigh on the UK real estate sector and boost volatility. The market is pricing in a 'bad outcome'. As such, they believe it is too soon to buy listed UK real estate securities.
